ORAL JUDGEMENT

#. The petitioner - Suresh @ Sukho Devjibhai, has been detained under the provisions of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 ("PASA Act" for short) by virtue of an order passed by District Magistrate, Bhavnagar, in exercise of powers under Section 3(1) of the PASA Act, dated August 21, 1999.

#. The grounds of detention indicate that the detaining authority took into consideration 5 prohibition offences registered against the petitioner. The detaining authority also took into consideration the statements of three anonymous witnesses and came to conclusion that the petitioner is a "bootlegger", that his activities are detrimental to public order, that fear expressed by the witnesses qua the petitioner was genuine and therefore, powers under section 9(2) of the PASA Act were exercised by the detaining authority by not disclosing identity of these witnesses.

#. The petitioner has challenged this order of detention on various counts. However, learned advocate for the petitioner has restricted his arguments to the fact that the subjective satisfaction recorded by the detaining authority for the need for exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act, cannot be considered as genuine. In order to substantiate this submission, learned counsel submitted that the statements of three anonymous witnesses were recorded on August 16, 1999 which were verified by the detaining authority on August 21, 1999 and the order of detention is passed on August 21, 1999. Learned counsel submitted, therefore, that there was no time for the detaining authority to give consideration to the aspect of correctness and genuineness of the facts stated by the witnesses and the fear expressed by the witnesses, respectively, in their statements. The exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act is improper and has resulted into denial of right of making an effective representation as contemplated under Article 22 (5) of the Constitution. Learned counsel for the petitioner therefore, submitted that, in light of the decision of a Division Bench of this Court in the case of Kalidas Chandubhai Kahar v. State of Gujarat & Ors. 1993 (2) GLR 1659, this petition may be allowed.

#. Mr. K.T.Dave, learned Assistant Government Pleader, has opposed this petition. He, however, does not dispute the factual aspect of the verification of the statements having been made on August 21, 1999 and the order having been passed on the same day i.e. on August 21,1999.

#. It is clear from the grounds of detention that the detaining authority has taken into consideration the statements of two anonymous witnesses. The authority came to a conclusion that the fear expressed by these witnesses is correct and genuine and, therefore, the authority exercised powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act by not disclosing the identity of the witnesses.

This Court is at loss to appreciate how the detaining authority could have arrived at this conclusion in such short spell. The detaining authority has not filed any affidavit-in-reply. It is, therefore, not possible to know as to what were the factors and material considered by the detaining authority besides the statements of the anonymous witnesses to come to conclusion that the fear expressed by the witnesses was genuine, that the incidents stated by the witnesses were correct and that there was need for exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act.

#. Similar such situation arose before a Division Bench of this Court in the case of Kalidas Chandubhai Kahar (supra), where the statements were verified on 16th October, 1992 and the order was passed on 17th October, 1992 and the Division Bench said that exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act was improper. This improper exercise of powers under Section 9(2) of the PASA Act was held to be detrimental to the right of the detenue of making an effective representation contemplated under Article 22(5) of the Constitution. The order of detention was, therefore, quashed. The facts of the present case squarely fall in line with the facts of that case. The order of detention, therefore stands vitiated in the instant case as well and the petition deserves to be allowed.

#. So far as the registered offences are concerned, the representation was made on behalf of the detenue on 7.4.2000 which was received by the District Magistrate on 10.4.2000 which has not been attended to according to the petitioner and the documents demanded are not supplied.

#. Mr. Dave, learned AGP states that the said representation was received on 10.4.2000. The detaining authority forwarded the same to the government on 15.4.2000 which was received by the State Government on 18.4.2000 and it was rejected on 20th April, 2000. However, the government issued direction to the District Magistrate to furnish copies of the documents demanded in the representation. Mr. Dave, however, could not indicate that the documents have been supplied as directed by the government. Against this, there is specific statement asserted on the part of Ms. Patel that the documents have not been supplied. In this view of the matter, non supply of the documents, though demanded, would result into infringement of the right of the detenue of making an effective representation. The petition therefore, deserves to be allowed.

#. In view of the above discussion, the petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated August 21, 1999 is hereby quashed. The detenue - Suresh @ Sukho Devjibhai is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other matter. Rule is made absolute with no orders as to costs.
